

Press Release

Pereira Joins Circet France

Paris, July 30, 2025 – Circet, Europe's leading provider of network infrastructure services, today announced the acquisition of Pereira.

Founded in 2008 by Rui Peneda Pereira, Pereira operates mainly in the Grand Est regions of France, carrying out projects primarily for Enedis, the national electricity distribution network operator.

With a dozen employees, the company specializes in earthworks, utility connections and public works.

João Martinho, Managing Director of Circet France, commented: "The acquisition of Pereira allows Circet France to broaden its scope of operations for Enedis, through a comprehensive range of public works, earthworks and utility connection services across the Grand Est region. We're delighted to welcome Pereira and the entire team on board. Their know-how will enhance our capabilities, as we remain committed to delivering top-quality service and client satisfaction."

Rui Peneda Pereira, founder of Pereira, added: "We're excited to take this next step by joining the Circet group. We're confident that this partnership will help us grow and scale our business within a well-structured organization that shares our core values: safety, high-quality execution, and customer satisfaction."
