

Circet Italia successfully completes the acquisition of Tekna Servizi S.r.l.

San Giovanni Teatino, Italy - October 27th, 2023 - Circet Italia S.p.a, the Italian subsidiary of Circet group and a leading company in the design and construction of networks and systems for telecommunications, transport, and energy in Italy, today announces the acquisition of Tekna Servizi S.r.l. based in Massa Martana, Perugia, and specializing in the design, construction and maintenance of telecom networks and technology systems.

This operation represents a significant step forward in Circet Italia's growth strategy and further strengthens its position in mobile telephony and data center infrastructure. Tekna Servizi is known for its operational efficiency and technical expertise, and its acquisition will further enhance the services offered by Circet Italia.

Fabrizio Perletta, CEO of Circet Italia, commented: “We are happy to announce the acquisition of Tekna Servizi. This operation represents a major step forward that will significantly increase our presence in the market. Tekna Servizi is known for its efficiency and customer orientation, values that we fully share. We are confident that this acquisition will allow us to offer even better solutions to our customers and continue to grow sustainably. We thank the Tekna team for their collaboration and look forward to welcoming them to Circet Italia.”

Angelo Sabatini, Founder and Director of Tekna Servizi, explained: “Becoming part of a large entity like Circet Italia is an opportunity for us to grow both professionally and operationally. By bringing the structures together, we are confident that we will be able to enhance our current skills and provide a higher quality service to our current and future clients. We thank Circet Italia for giving us this opportunity; we are all ready and excited to embark on this new journey together.”

With the acquisition of Tekna Servizi, Circet Italia will continue to focus on offering cutting-edge solutions to meet the needs of customers in an increasingly effective and innovative manner.

About Tekna Servizi
